FOREWORD 1620567

My first problem in Jefferson Co., Kentucky, concerned the determination of which Frederick married which Dale and had a daughter (name unknown) who married Alford Norris about 1867. Mrs. Charles E. Craik of Louisville was successful in tracing the Frederick line back to 1760 in Germany and learned from Miss Evelyn Dale of Louisville the parentage of Emily Dale who had married Walter Percy Fredcrick on 15 Aug 1836 in Spencer Co., Kentucky. The records of Woodford Co., Kentucky, show that a Reuben Dale married Polly Mahan on 15 Aug 1798 and Miss Evelyn Dale had a record that Reuben was born 19 Apr 1777 and died 27 May 1858.

The Dale pensioners of the Revolutionary War who lived in Woodford Co. stated that they were from Richmond Co. in the Northern Neck of Virginia. The extant copy of the North Farnham Parish Register of Richmond Co. contains a few birth records, three deaths, and no marriages for the Dale families. Fortunately, there was a record of the birth of Reuben Dale, son of John and Lucy, on 19 Apr 1778, exactly one year later than the family records showed. Records in Woodford Co., Kentucky, confirm that his father's name was John Dale.

My correspondence about the Dale family has been heaviest with the following:

Mrs. Lawrence L. Dale of Tarrytown, New York, who spent a day or so in the Northern Neck and copied many of the Dale records there.

Judge F. Hiner Dale of Guymon, Oklahoma, who included in his "A History of the Michael Reasor and Allied Families" (1941) what he could find of the descendants of Reuben and Polly (Mahan) Dale of Spencer Co., Kentucky.

Mrs. Ernest G. Aker of Parkville, Missouri, who is a descendant of one of the two William Dales who early moved to Woodford Co.

Mrs. Ernest E. Stonecipher of Pittsburg, Kansas, who is a descendant of the Robert Dale who early moved to Woodford Co. and later served as a Baptist circuit rider in Missouri.

Judge Dale, now retired from the Bench but continuing his many hobbies, has been sufficiently interested in tracing his Dale lineage to support some of the necessary research. Together we have commissioned

Mrs. William E. Bach of Lexington, Kentucky, who has copied in detail the Dale records from Woodford Co. for us.

Miss Lucy Brown Beale of Hague, Virginia, who filled in some further details from the counties of the Northern Neck.

Ann Waller Reddy of Richmond, Virginia, who has checked some items at the Archives.

Judge Dale has authorized me to make copies of these Dale notes to facilitate correspondence and hopefully to reduce the cost for other descendants in tracing their ancestors. If the Dale records are to take on an orderly form, some family records will have to come out of the attics to form the connecting links for other isolated family records.

The title page of a Bible published in Edinburgh in 1791 was presented with the initial claim of Mary Dale to provide evidence of her marriage and the births of her children. The original page from the Bible is present in the file. The entries on the reverse of the title page provide the following information:

Jerremiah Dale	b. 12 Nov 1788

The widow, Mary Dale, was allowed pension on her application of 15 Mar 1841. The last semi-annual instalment of $22 was paid to Mary Dale in Mar 1844. There is no last payment file under this claim which probably means that so little was due that it would have cost more to file for it than would have been realized.

Burgess Ball. He served until the year 1779 and was discharged at Lancaster, Pa. He was in the battle of Monmouth. On this same date Abraham Dale, also of Woodford Co., Ky., stated that he served at the same time as William did. On 2 Apr 1821 in describing his straightened circumstances, William said "One son living with him at this time" . . . "(My other son Whitfield has left me)". Daughter Creath had a "white swelling".

William Dale, wife Elizabeth. Pension File W9828 (continued)

A family Bible published in 1814 was presented as evidence of marriage and the births of the children of William and Elizabeth. This Bible was returned to some heirs in 1877, but the dates were dopies on the back of one of the letters. The Bible records runs as follows:

William Dale m. Elizabeth Booth 29 July 1789

James B. Dale	b. .. Apr 1790
Sallie	b. 4 Sept 1791
Lewis L.	b. 14 Jan 1796

Whitfield	b. 4 Dec 1800
Creath	b. 2 May 1803
William Dale	d. 7 Dec [sic] 1822 [cf. June, above]

There is no "last payment file" for William Dale.

A file does exist for Elizabeth Dale. Her application was finally approved a few days after she died on 3 June 1847 and since she was applying under the Acts of 1843 and 1844, nearly four instalments of $40 were due. The amount distributed to the heirs was $159.89, for one day less than four years.

There are several affidavits on the four leaves of a single folded sheet. One of these states that Timothy R. Dale was the executor of the estate of Elizabeth Dale. His relationship is not given.

Another affidavit states that Elizabeth Dale had been living in Clay Co., Mo., for two years prior to her death. She had previously living in Hancock Co., Illinois. No mention was made of her residence in Woodford Co., Ky. The following heirs are listed:

James B. Dale
Sally Boston, late Sally Dale

Heirs of Lewis L. Dale, deceased
- George Dale

Heirs of Jacob C. Dale, deceased

It might be noted that Elizabeth Dale's application of 20 May 1846 was executed in the home of Jacob C. Dale "who lived about five miles from the County Seat". The last payment file gives his relationship to Elizabeth Dale and shows that he died within the intervening year. The 1840 census of Clay Co., Mo., shows that Jacob C. Dale was in the age group 30-40 and had five children under 10 years of age (all sons).

Robert Dale evidently left no children of his own, but he mentions Reuben Dale (d. 1768 ?) and his brother Thomas Dale (d. 1773 ?). The family of Thomas and Alice (Sydnor) Dale does not include a Priscilla (Silley ?), but the Will of Alse Dale on file in Woodford Co., Ky., includes a daughter Vilcy Graddy who turned out to be the Violet or Viola Dale who married 17 Sept 1790 in Woodford Co., Ky., to Jesse Graddy from North Carolina. Perhaps the clerk who copied the Will into the Will Book back in 1779 found some difficult handwriting in the original document!

Reuben Dale had sons Isaac, Abraham, William and Robert whose births are included in the North Farnham Parish Register. The exact relationship of Luke Hanks and Lucy Smith to the Dale family is yet to be determined.
